

I can remember when the rules were made to STOP monopoly of broadcast & print media. There were many good reasons for it. I think the Hearst empire was a good example. Please DO NOT relax these rules! There are already plenty of stupid and gullible people who can't think for themselves. Don't stop the few small voices of reason...